L'ORCHESTRA GIOVANILE EUROPEA DI STRUMENTI A PIZZICO IN CONCERTO AD ALBENGA PER IL GIORNO DI PASQUA

La Città di Savona, attraverso l'Associazione "Accademia Internazionale Italiana di Mandolino", si è aggiudicata per il 2009 l'ospitalità della European Guitar and Mandolin Youth Orchestra – EGMYO- : una quarantina di giovani musicisti, tutti under 26, cittadini di Grecia, Italia, Gran Bretagna, Spagna, Russia, Germania, Croazia e anche del lontano Venezuela, si sono ora riuniti nel capoluogo savonese per formare l'orchestra giovanile europea di strumenti a pizzico.

Il Comune di Albenga, interessato a questa manifestazione di livello internazionale, ospiterà il giorno di Pasqua l'Orchestra Giovanile Europea di strumenti a pizzico, che si esibirà al Cinema Ambra per le ore 21.

L'ingresso è gratuito ed il programma musicale è ambizioso e di grande valore artistico: durante il concerto di Pasqua, diretto dal M° Carlo Aonzo, verranno eseguite musiche originali di Kurt Schwaen, Eduardo Angulo, Oliver Kaelberer, Dimitri Nicolau e Takaschi Kubota

“ E’ un onore ospitare l’Orchestra Giovanile Europea ad Albenga proprio per il giorno di Pasqua e in concomitanza a Fior d’Albenga. Oltre al grande valore artistico è da sottolineare la valenza morale e sociale della manifestazione: giovani di diverse culture e nazionalità, uniti dall’amore e la passione per la musica, si faranno portarci di un chiaro un messaggio di pace” spiega il Sindaco di Albenga Antonello Tabbò.

Il M° Carlo Aonzo, a cui vanno i meriti per aver portato nel savonese l’EGMYO, dichiara: “Sono molto orgoglioso che Savona, una delle capitali italiane del mandolino, si sia aggiudicata quest’anno l’ospitalità alla European Guitar and Mandolin Youth Orchestra, che comprende una quarantina di giovani musicisti, ospitati da sabato scorso al Seminario Vescovile Savonese, provenienti da diversi Paesi del mondo. Il mandolino si dimostra così uno strumento di divulgazione culturale internazionale e la musica un elemento di fratellanza tra i popoli. Sono molto lieto che questi ragazzi, preparati da uno staff internazionale, si esibiranno in un concerto finale al Teatro Chiabrera e si esibiranno anche al Teatro Cinema Ambra di Albenga.
